Neuerungen im Verkehrswesen:

A historical black and white photograph of Alexanderplatz in Berlin. The scene is bustling with activity. In the foreground, a large tram with the number 1206 is moving across the square. Numerous pedestrians in early 20th-century attire are walking on the sidewalks and crossing the street. Several horse-drawn carriages and early motor vehicles are also visible. The background is dominated by grand, multi-story buildings with ornate architectural details. Prominent signs on the buildings include 'Loeser & W.', 'scheier Fabrik', 'Tabak', 'Clearren', and 'LUPSE WOH'. A statue on a pedestal is visible in the middle ground. The overall atmosphere is one of a busy, modern urban center from the early 1900s.
